WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods on store.
The sheds will be divided into fire proof compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and those who have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.
We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The proximity of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one drayage on all cotton sent for compression from other warehouses, while on all cotton in our warehouse for compressment there can be two drayages saved, since it would be as easy for us to take it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

MAGUIRE'S BENNE PLANT.

THIS Extraordinary Medicine, the fame of which is spread broadcast throughout the country, is undoubtedly superior to any remedy ever offered to the public for the complaints for which it is intended. We have in our possession testimonials furnished voluntarily by Col. Long, late Chief Topographical Engineer Bureau at Washington, Gen. Fitz Henry Warren, Gen. Pleasanton, and others of the army; Father P. J. De Smet, the celebrated Indian Missionary, also Officers of the Navy, Surgeons, Hospital Stewards, Commanders of nearly every steamer plying on the Mississippi and tributary rivers, Western Sanitary and Christian Commissions, Army Chaplains, and others too numerous to mention. Likewise highest encomiums of the Press, most of which are published in our almanac, (which we shall send to any one requesting it) praising its valuable medicinal qualities in the highest terms. No other medicine has such recommendations.

EFFECTS OF NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

In the Greensboro (Ala.) Beacon, we find the following:

An unusual amount of insubordination and reckless indifference to the discharge of duties, has been manifested on several plantations—attributable to the pernicious doctrines inculcated by Keffer and others, at the barbecue. Many of the negroes returned to their homes fully impressed with the belief that they are soon to be placed in possession of the lands now owned by their employers. One man, as we have learned, went so far as to inquire whether the freedmen that he had employed for a short time only, would enjoy the same privilege of making selections, in the division which would be made of his plantation, as would those who have lived with him a longer period. In other words, "when your plantation is divided out between us, will the colored people in your employment all be dealt with alike, as to the quantity and quality of lands they will get?

That they are to have the lands of the country is an opinion many of them entertain. For that opinion, which is most demoralizing in its effects, they are indebted to the radical papers, and to the demagogues who are catering to their prejudices that they may secure their votes.

The day will come when the freedmen will find out that the men to whom they are now giving their confidence are not only unworthy of that confidence, but their worst enemies.

A correspondent of the Louisville Courier, writing from Macon, Ga., on the 9th of September, says:

Since the completion of what is called the registration of the state—that is, two mean white men and one negro in each district making a list of all the buck niggers, and a few of the citizens who never held office either state or federal, the holding of a reconstruction convention has become a fixed fact. We shall certainly have a convention which will purport to represent by savage Africans and white men who can take the test oath, the sovereignty of the state of Georgia—that sovereign which Troup, Clarke, Dawson, Berrien, Cobb, Lumpkin, Toombs, Stephens, and numbers of the illustrious patriots have represented when Georgia was free, when Massachusetts Jacobinism was powerless for evil, and when truth, justice and the constitution were the mainsprings of political action.

Already has the canvass commenced for the election of delegates whenever the shoulder straps commanding the district shall give the word of command: "Attention, niggers and loyalists! Prepare for election—vote—march." In former days when representatives of the people were to be chosen the effort was made to select as candidates those who possessed the most intelligence, experience and character, and who in the highest degree enjoyed the confidence of the masses. But now the effort is to hunt out men who are either prominently obnoxious by their treachery, ignorance and general want of reputation, or who are so utterly obscure and inexperienced that no human beings can say what opinions they hold or what course they will adopt. It is lamentable to see honest, respectable men urging the selection of these obscurities on the ground that it may be possible to induce the negroes to vote for them, and that such individuals are preferable to the less reputable avowed radicals, who are seeking political power. To obtain the nomination of persons whose only merit is that they never did or said anything either before, during or since the war, and who have the negative proof of honesty afforded by the fact that they have never been in the penitentiary, is considered a conservative triumph; and to persuade the leading negroes to promise to support them, is regarded as a brilliant achievement.

The negro majority in the whole state is said to be from one to two thousand. The whites, had all who would have been permitted registered their names, might have had a majority of close on twenty thousand. But since the explanatory act of the Washington junta, giving the boards of two mean whites and one nigger the power to amend the lists before the election, provided that the boxes were to be stuffed and the lists cooked to insure a radical success, the people became entirely indifferent, and thought that they best consulted their dignity and self respect by having nothing to do with "the unclean thing."

In the towns and cities which are governed by municipal authorities the prospect of negro rule is having its natural effect in making the corporate obligations almost valueless. Especially is this the case in Savannah, where the chances are strongly in favor of the election of a black-and-tan government of which it is difficult to say whether the ineffable meanness of the white candidates for civil office or the bestial ignorance of the black aspirants is most to be dreaded. Formerly the city bonds of Savannah were justly regarded as among the best and most desirable securities in the state. Since it has become probable that their value will depend on the capacity and good faith of a negro government they have fallen almost to nothing, and the same is beginning to be true of every species of property which will become liable to the ordinances of rice swamp negroes and whites who would consent to associate with such animals.

In nearly all the large towns the negro voters are in the majority, and conscious of their power they are determined to assert it, and the same result as in Savannah must follow. When the negroes were made free, the smartest, most vicious and most accomplished rascals among them flocked to the towns where the opportunities to steal and lead a life of brutal sensuality and idleness were so much greater than in the country. The consequence is that the negro electors of the cities and towns are the worst and most dangerous of the black population, and therefore the apprehension of the danger to property from their political ascendancy is natural and well founded.

The Van Buren (Ark.) Press says:

We understood that George Hood, a very worthy colored man, is talked of as one of the candidates for the convention for this county. The colored men have at least half of the radical vote of the county, and should be entitled to one of the nominees.

And a Cheraw (S. C.) paper says:

The friends of Mr. Smead (black man) are actively pressing his claims for congress in South Carolina. Every day he is said to be gaining fresh strength.

"Now, by Saint PAUL, the work goes bravely on! We take the following from the Louisville Courier:

As was to have been expected, the negroes in those districts in the south where they are in the majority are claiming a due proportion of offices. They have been informed by the radicals who enfranchised them that they are equal to the white men, and far more loyal, and, believing what is told them, they boldly assert their claims. In the parish of Alexandria, as we learn from the Louisiana Gazette, published at Alexandria, a negro by the name of G. Y. Kelso has been nominated as a delegate to the convention to frame a new constitution under the reconstruction laws. Several white men were nominated on the same ticket, but the Democrat informs its readers that they are unworthy characters, and remonstrates with the negro for consenting to run upon the ticket with them. Of course white men who are possessed of a particle of self-respect, dignity or character, would not sell themselves to such dirty work for the miserable emoluments of a petty office. But it will, nevertheless, be found that wherever white men find that they can insure their election by dividing their ticket with negroes, there will be found enough mean enough thus to disgrace themselves and bring disrepute upon the race to which they belong, but from which they must have originated by some extraordinary mistake of nature. We may, therefore, look for these spotted and piebald tickets in every quarter, and for their election.

The conventions will be mixtures of black and tan and white, and their deliberations will be as free from wisdom and statesmanship as are the individual members of decency and intelligence. Who would have suspected eight years ago that this great nation could have been driven by the excesses and the action of demagogues into such an extraordinary and disgraceful position as it now occupies? But the day of retribution for these political desperadoes is at hand. The handwriting is even now visible upon the wall, and from the pine-clad hills of Maine to the golden gates of California, the voice of an insulted and indignant people echoes the sentence of their doom.

Meanwhile BEN. WADE, Acting Vice-President of the United States, vulgarly and profanely haranguing the people of Ohio, says that the question of negro suffrage is of no practical importance, but the principle is of some significance. Who, he said, is mean enough to deprive a colored man of suffrage when he bears his share of everything, that ain't a Democrat?

And in South Carolina, Governor ORR babbles to the freedmen, and telling them of their power in the State, gives them good advice. We have the following account of one of his exhortations:

At a political meeting at Bolton, S. C., held on the 29th ult., Gov. J. L. Orr, addressing the whites, advised them to register and vote for a convention, as it was folly and madness to attempt to defeat that object. There were sixty thousand negro voters against thirty thousand whites, and as the convention would look to the interest of the black man it could not be expected that one of them would vote against it. He then admonished the freedmen that they must be industrious and save their money, and reminded them if they attempt oppression of the whites now, while in the majority, it might be visited upon them in the future, when the balance of power would be different, as no more negroes were to be brought to this country. He disabused their minds of the idea that they would obtain lands from the government, and showed that this was not even desirable upon their part.

Governor ORR might as well talk to the Fejee Islanders or Australasian savages.

Noon Dispatches.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

AUGUSTA, GA., September 18.—For some days past there have been frequent quarrels between the soldiers and freedmen. A negro is reported mortally and a soldier badly wounded. The freedmen threatened to attack the barracks last night, but no collision has occurred. It is said that the soldiers are the aggressors.

NEW YORK, September 18.—The Tribune says Chief Justice Chase authorizes a denial of a statement going the round of the newspapers, that he has written a letter to President Johnson, indorsing his action in the recent conflict of authority between Gen. Sickles and the civil courts of the Carolinas, in relation to order No. 10, for which Gen. Sickles was removed. He has never given an opinion on the subject to Mr. Johnson or any other government official.

HAVANA, September 17.—A Mexico city correspondence, of the 9th instant, says Escobedo published a denial of the authority of his letter against foreigners.

Costillo and all the generals at Queretaro, who were sentenced to be shot, have been pardoned.

Marquez is said to be at Yucatan at the head of some rebel Indians.

Later advices from Vera Cruz have been received, which state that the trial of Santa Anna is daily expected to take place, his counsel having already arrived from the city of Mexico in Vera Cruz. It was generally believed that sentence of death would be found by the court; as an order, however, had arrived from the supreme government forbidding the carrying out of any sentence, without the findings being approved by the president as commander-in-chief, it was supposed after trial the authorities intended to pardon the old soldier.

LIVERPOOL, September 18.—The New York Atlantic telegraph company has declared a dividend of four per cent. on eight per cent. preference shares.

MANCHESTER, September 18.—Col. Kelly, a Fenian leader in the late outbreak in Ireland, has been arrested and will be sent to Dublin to be tried on the charge of treason.

BELFAST, September 18.—Over eight thousand people attended the funeral of a supposed secret director of a Fenian organization in this section of Ireland.

BERLIN, September 18.—Austria and Prussia are negotiating for an amicable commercial treaty.

LONDON, September 18.—In the normal meeting held at Lambeth to-day, by delegates to the Pan-Anglican convention, the synod meeting was called together by the Archbishop of Canterbury. Bishop Hopkins, of Vermont; Bishop Odenheimer, of New Jersey, and many other Episcopal clergymen from the United States, were present at the meeting.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

—During the past week, 540 applications and eighty caveats were filed in the patent office.

—Quarantine, intended to be very strict, has been established at Jackson, Miss.

—A call has been issued for a state temperance convention to meet at Albany, N. Y., on October 2d.

—The yellow fever, which seemed abating on Monday and Tuesday, is again increasing in violence at New Orleans.

—Reports from the cotton crop of Georgia are very gloomy, the heavy rains in some localities having nearly ruined it.

—The loss by fire in Cincinnati on Saturday night is estimated at half a million dollars. The amount of insurance is not yet ascertained.

—Advices by the cable from Lisbon state that the allied forces on the Parana had achieved some success over the Paraguayans.

—With the reckless wastefulness of radicalism, a large amount is being expended in printing the report of the house judiciary committee on impeachment at the government printing office. The employees engaged on it have been sworn to secrecy.

—There is considerable excitement in Mexico over the call issued for a general election. Juarez is in favor of amending the constitution so as to make it similar to that of the United States, but the masses are opposed to the change.

—Gen. Howard has ordered Capt. Judd, the bureau agent at Pulaski, Tenn., who was not able to find a boarding-house in the town, to Virginia, which is very like extracting him from the frying pan to drop in the fire.

—The New York Evening Gazette has a column article exposing the horrors of the hotel and restaurant kitchens in that city. We copy the following: "It is a common remark in the kitchens of the elegant restaurants that if the guests could take one look they would be effectually cured of any desire to eat another morsel there."

—The registration is complete in Louisiana, Florida, Virginia, Alabama and Georgia, and those states are ready to hold elections under the reconstruction law. The president, however, it is said, advises the district commanders to delay until the registration of the other states is finished, and suggests the 1st of November as the day for holding elections in them all.

—The steam fire department of St. Louis had their tenth anniversary parade Tuesday, and made a fine show. After the parade there was an inspection, at Lucas market-place. The department embraces eighty-eight men, sixty-eight horses, ten engines, ten carriages, each carrying sixteen hundred feet of hose, two hook and ladder trucks and two fuel carts.

—A duel took place near Connersville, Ind., on Thursday morning, between Hon. J. W. Carmichael, formerly of the state senate, and James W. Mayo, a lawyer in Indianapolis. Two rounds were fired; the first resulted in a flesh wound to Carmichael. In the second Mayo received the discharge in the region of his heart, and was taken from the garden by his friends and a surgeon. The affair originated from the fact that Carmichael had accused Mayo of cheating at the gambling table.

PERSONAL.

Gen. Meade, on his recent trip to the border, failed to discover a single Fenian.

Chief Justice Chase has returned to Washington.

Napoleon is extending and strengthening the fortifications of Strasbourg.

Italy is preparing to resist Garibaldi in his aggressive movement on Rome.

A Frenchman, named J. J. Periner, committed suicide in New York Tuesday by shooting himself with a pistol.

Miss Adelaide C. Hayes, a Jersey City school teacher, has been held for trial, charged with unmercifully beating a child.

Mrs. Caroline Gould Hildreth, wife of the late historian, Richard Hildreth, died, August 18th, of cholera, at Naples.

Santa Anna has not yet been tried. The general impression is that he will not be executed, but that his estate will be confiscated.

Hon. Thos. A. DeBlos, a distinguished lawyer of Maine, died at Portland yesterday, aged seventy-two years.

Chief Justice Chase has written to the president, sustaining the civil authorities in the judicial cases in North Carolina.

Surgeon Joseph S. Smith, United States army, recently transferred to Fort Jefferson, Tortugas, is dead, of yellow fever.

Ben. Wade and Vallandigham slept under the same roof, at Mansfield, on Friday night, but it does not appear that they occupied the same bed.

Sheridan, who left Leavenworth Saturday night, is expected in Washington in about a week. He will make a brief stoppage at Chicago and his old home in Ohio and in New York.

Ex-Mayor Withers, of Mobile, is in Washington, endeavoring to secure executive interference to sustain some claims on the city of Mobile, which, he says, were suspended by the military.

At Connersville, Ind., on Saturday, Rev. F. C. Halliday, F. A. Hesler and J. W. Locke were elected delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The dwelling house of Jairus Kene, at East Abington, Mass., was burned on Sunday night. Mr. Kene's two daughters, his only children, aged nineteen and twenty-one, were burned to death. Mr. Kene is in New Orleans, and his wife and daughters were alone in the house.

GROVER & BAKER'S
Celebrated
Elastic Stitch and Lock Stitch

SEWING MACHINES.
Why the Grover & Baker Machine is Best.
1. It is more simple, durable, and less liable to derangement than others.
2. It sews from ordinary spools, and no re-winding of thread is necessary.
3. It sews with equal facility all fabrics, the most delicate and the heaviest, and with all kinds of thread, silk, cotton or linen.
4. Its seam is so strong and elastic that it never breaks, even on the bias.
5. It fastens both ends of the seam by its own operation.
6. Its seam, though cut at every sixth stitch, remains firm, and neither runs or ravels in wear.
7. Its seam is more plump and beautiful, and retains its plumpness and beauty after washing better than any other.
8. Its seam can be removed in altering garments, after proper instruction, without picking or cutting them.
9. Watching and varying the tensions upon the threads necessary in other machines is unnecessary in this. The tension being once adjusted on the Grover and Baker Machine, any amount of sewing may be done without change.
10. It makes beautiful embroidery without any change of arrangement, simply by inserting threads of suitable sizes and colors for this purpose. It is the only machine that both embroiders and sews perfectly.

The Great Southern Remedy.

DR. C. WILLIAMS'
Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry
—AND—
WOOD NAPTHA,
Recommended by distinguished members of the Medical Profession.
THIS Medicine will be found on a fair trial to be the most prompt and effectual remedy for all diseases of the CHEST and THROAT, the greatest care having been taken in its preparation, being compounded on the most scientific principles. In its composition is embraced a combination of the most valuable and effective Expectorants, Anodynes and Sedatives, which are known to possess the highest repute with all intelligent members of the Medical Profession.
Wood Naptha, as well as the Wild Cherry, enters largely into its composition, being the GREAT REMEDY so successfully used in Consumption by the celebrated Dr. Hastings, of London.
The following evidence is from the Rev. W. D. F. Sawrie, Presiding Elder of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the District of North Alabama:
DR. CHARLES WILLIAMS—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in giving my testimony to the virtues of your excellent "Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry." Having used several bottles in my family with decided advantage in every case, I can recommend it as the best and most pleasant medicine I have ever seen.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of trust to me executed by Jacob J. Peres and A. J. Ensel, on the 16th day of August, 1866, which deed is of record in the Register's office of Shelby county, Tennessee, in Record Book No. 57, part 1, pages 331, 332 and 333, made to secure the payment to Joseph Musso, Sr., of a certain promissory note mentioned therein, due on 1st day of September, 1867, for the sum of Four Thousand Dollars, which said note remains due and unpaid, I will by virtue of the authority and power vested in me by said trust deed, on Saturday, 21st day of September, 1867, in front of postoffice in the city of Memphis, between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock a.m., proceed to sell to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described lot of land, situated, lying and being in the county of Shelby, State of Tennessee, and city of Memphis, to-wit: Beginning at a stake on the northwest corner of Linden and DeSoto streets and running north with said DeSoto street sixty feet, thence west and parallel with Linden street one hundred and nineteen feet, thence south parallel with DeSoto street sixty feet to a stake on Linden street, thence east with Linden street one hundred and nineteen feet to the beginning, being part of lot No. 6 in block No. 46, together with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging. By the terms of said trust deed the parties thereto waive all right of redemption in and to said land and premises by virtue of the laws of the State of Tennessee. The title to said lot is believed to be good, but I convey only as trustee.

Trust Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that in accordance with the provisions and directions of a deed in trust executed and delivered to me on the 11th day of July, 1866, by Richard B Hawley (which deed is of record in the Recorder's office of Crittenden county, Arkansas,) and for the purposes of the notes therein described, I will on Friday, September 27, 1867, at the door of the Clerk's office, in the town of Marion, Crittenden county, Arkansas, sell to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the following described real estate, situated in Crittenden county, Arkansas, and known as that part of the Spanish Grant, originally owned by the Grandee Estate, conveyed by William O. D. Spain to George W. Underhill and Isaac Burgett: The south part of the southwest quarter of section twenty four (24) conveyed in same deed; the east half of section thirty-six (36) and the southeast quarter of section thirty-five (35), all in township seven (7), north of the base line of range eight (8), east of the 5th principal meridian.
The title to this property is believed to be perfectly good, but I shall convey only as Trustee.
Part of this land comprises one of the finest plantations on the Military Road, with Gin-house, Cabins, etc., being the plantation known as the Brown Place, near Marion, Ark.

EDUCATIONAL.

Classical and Mathematical
SCHOOL FOR BOYS,
In Albemarle County, Va.
H. N. B. WOOD Principal.
A. J. WOOD Associate Principal.

SECOND SESSION 1867-8.
THIS School is located one and a-half miles from Greenwood Depot on the Virginia Central Railroad and fifteen miles west of Charlottesville and the University of Virginia. The location is well known as Dr. Gessner Harrison, Rev. Wm. Dinwiddie, and Prof. Edward B. Smith formerly conducted schools at this place. Previously it was a popular summer resort, conducted by John S. Cocke, Esq. Being situated in one of the most beautiful portions of Albemarle county, in the midst of a refined and intelligent community, remote from places of dissipation, and convenient to Churches and Sabbath Schools of the leading denominations, it possesses rare advantages for a Boys' School.
The course of study is designed to be thorough and comprehensive in Ancient and Modern Languages, Mathematics and the English Branches, and also to embrace the elements of Natural and Moral Sciences and History.
The Principal was educated at the University of Virginia, and has had an experience of nearly ten years in teaching in schools of high grade in this State, including Dr. Gessner Harrison's school, Bloomfield Academy, Lynchburg Female Seminary, and Hon. R. M. T. Hunter's private school.
The Associate Principal was also educated at the University of Virginia, and has had an experience of eight years in teaching in the Southern States—formerly in Edgeworth Female Seminary. North Carolina, more recently in Sherman, Texas.
The following recommendation of our school by Professors of the University of Virginia, is respectfully submitted:
UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, April 7, 1867.
In view of our personal acquaintance with Messrs. H. N. B. and A. J. Wood, we do not hesitate cordially to recommend their school to the confidence and patronage of the public.
S. Maupin, M. Schele De Vere,
Wm. H. McGuffey, J. S. Davis,
Francis H. Smith, J. B. Minor,
J. L. Cabell, B. L. Gildersleeve,
C. S. Venable, Wm. E. Peters.
TERMS:
For board and tuition, including fuel, washing and lights for the session of ten months, two hundred and seventy-five ($275) dollars in currency. Payments one-half in advance, balance on the 1st of February.
The sessions commence on the 1st of September and close on the 27th of June. Pupils will be received at any time during the session, with a pro rata deduction in charges. Boys from a distance will be allowed to remain during vacation as boarders in the family of the Principal.
Arrangements are made for conveyance from the Depot (Greenwood) to the school immediately upon arrival.
Only two boys in a room.

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE CONDUCT OF THE APPEAL.

A GOVERNMENT of white men for white men; and no political miscegenation.

LOYALTY to the Union of the STATES: FIDELITY to the Constitution in its true extent and meaning: Obedience to and maintenance of all law, State and National, constitutionally enacted.

RESISTANCE to Tyranny, Usurpation and Oppression, of one man or many; and to all encroachments upon the rights of freemen or of States, or upon the just and Constitutional prerogatives of any Department of the State or National Governments.

NO ESTABLISHMENTS of Military despotisms, no enthroning of martial law, no suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, no slaying of citizens by Military Commission, no interference with the Courts, no lettres de cachet, in time of peace.

STRICT SUBORDINATION of the Military to the Civil Power.

NO STANDING ARMIES of States in time of peace.

RESTORATION of disfranchised citizens to all [illegible]s and privileges of which they have been disseized; no prosecutions or disqualifications for political opinions; for the PAST, oblivion of offences; for the PRESENT and FUTURE, UNION, PEACE, LAW and ORDER.

PERPETUAL ASSURANCE to all freemen of the African race, of all the CIVIL rights of freemen.

NO REPUDIATION, by State or Nation, of any honest and lawful debt.

NO REVIVAL of old party differences; but a Union of all Conservative men, of all former parties, who revere the Constitution, to restore the old land-marks of the Government.

NO LEGISLATION to plunder one portion of the country for the profit of another portion.

WHATEVER IS JUST; whatever is RIGHT; whatever is of GOOD REPUTE, and worthy of the descendants of English freemen

THE EBONY ERA.

This world of ours has witnessed many eras and has seen many empires rise, crumble and decay. We read of the golden age, the iron era, the Augustan age, and the Elizabethan era. A new era and a new empire claim the attention of mankind and the investigation of the scientific. It is the Ebony Era and the Ebony Empire. White men who boast of their superior intelligence and their "higher civilization," vie with each other in paying homage to the Ebony type of manhood: from WENDELL PHILLIPS and HORACE GREELY to the most insignificant negro worshipper in the country there is a rivalry as to who shall exhibit the most disgusting Fetish worship of the "American citizen of African descent." The Wabash Valley Times furnishes the world the following valuable morceau:

One Richard Howard, principal of the State Normal school, at Bloomington, Ill., delivered an address at Terre Haute one day last week, on the occasion of laying the corner-stone of the Indiana State Normal school. Of course, this representative of Illinois (radical) intelligence went to the celebration with the negro in his heart, negro in his head, and a huge bunch of negro wool in his teeth. When laying the foundation of educational institutions, what higher theme can employ the pen or engage the attention of the orator than that of the negro? He is the alpha and omega of our existence, and according to this wiseacre, the only hope of salvation for the white race. After much thought and careful investigation, the learned white sneak has abandoned all hope of his family ever climbing up to an equality with the negro. He is thus reported:

Mr. Howard approved the position of Gov. Morton in regard to the commingling of black and white children. He said the day would come when the negro would be more intelligent and cultivated than the white man, and the question would be, not whether the negro should be permitted to marry a white girl, but whether a white girl, his own daughter in fact, would be sufficiently accomplished to marry a colored gentleman.

If this RICHARD HOWARD had "all the blood of all the HOWARDS" in his veins he would be capable of tainting and disgracing it by his silly and disgusting exhibition of his instincts, on the occasion above referred to. If he has a daughter she would be justifiable in dissolving her connection with such an ancestor. But aside from the barbarous and nonsensical expose which the fellow has made of himself, would it not be wise to regard Mr. HOWARD as the type of the Radical faction, which, by its principles and legislation, has done all in its power to render the negro superior to the white man, in every sense in which that object can be effected? Have not negros been enfranchised, while white men have been disfranchised, in the South by Radical legislation, both in Congress and the Tennessee Legislature? What do the Radicals of Congress and our State Legislature mean, if they do not intend to place the negro above their own race? They mean nothing else, hoping thereby to perpetuate their brief authority in the land and to monopolize all the offices and all the political power. If the negroes will trust them with the lead and consent to be mere voters, while they hold all the offices and enjoy all the emoluments, they will continue to legislate in this manner to the end of time. They may, nay will indorse the opinions of this HOWARD, or EDWARDS, or whatever name he may have; for "by any other name he would smell as sweet." They would marry their daughters to the race they worship. Why not? They have sacrificed their country, their fellow-citizens to the negro. They have plundered the people of the South, and are now feloniously contemplating their entire destruction, to make the negro uppermost. Why should not these Radical aspirants, in our midst, practise social as well as political equality with a race they so much love? It is true they are not willing to give up the offices to them. Oh, no! They desire to hold these themselves, as a fitting reward for their invaluable services, in rescuing the negro from bondage, as they boast, and consigning him, as we contend, to starvation and idleness. The special object of the rescue was to get the offices. And are they such fools as to surrender these to SAMBO, before he has been initiated into the horn-book of political knowledge? No indeed! SAMBO must practice gratitude and patience. For the present the white Radicals are the only persons fit and capable of governing a country, when there are so many traitors and rebels and so many 'PROFITABLE offices to be filled.' SAMBO can out-vote the rebels, by excluding the aforesaid rebels from the polls; but SAMBO must "take a back seat," when the offices are to be filled, and when the spoils and plunder are to be distributed. SAMBO can have everything but office. The time is coming when SAMBO will be superior to the white man, and when the white man's daughter—we beg pardon—when HOWARD's or EDWARDS' daughter will not be deemed worthy to intermarry with the accomplished colored gentleman. But for all that, the Radicals do not wish this same colored gentleman to aspire to office, SUMNER and GREELEY alone excepted. Offices were made for white, not colored Radicals.

But the colored men are not disposed to submit to a discrimination so palpably against their aristocratic aspirations. If your colored man loves anything above another, it is distinction and place. He likes to wear a badge, if it be but a bauble. How he would be tickled with a seat in Congress, or the Legislature! How he would rejoice to be a Mayor, a Magistrate or an Alderman! Mr. WENDELL PHILLIPS says he ought to be Vice-President. Why should he not be that, or even President, if he chooses? He holds the balance of power in the Ebony Empire. He has the voting strength.

Radicalism is his sworn liege. PHILLIPS and GREELY and SUMNER and WILSON and WADE are his worshippers and admirers. They have legislated him superior to the white race. Is there any reason why he should not "accept the situation" and at once throw himself into the breach and save the country from the threatened possession of rebels, traitors and disloyalists? White men are very uncertain. More than half of them are rebels and copperheads. The other moiety are the worshippers of the negro. The negro is the only truly loyal man in the country except Radicals; and Radicals doat on him—love him—worship him. Let him then, without delay, accept the reins of rule and restore and reconstruct the country. Let him relieve all our disorders, dissensions and political jars by, CURTIUS-like, throwing himself into the abyss and accepting all the offices. Let us have an end of the eternal nigger question, by making the negro supreme, and allowing him to run the machine after the fashion of his brother of Dahomey. This is the true solution of all our troubles—the only practical solution as long as Radicalism is rampant and ascendent. Then, let us have the Ebony Empire!

LYING: THE NATIONAL VICE.

The National Intelligencer says, of the Washington Chronicle, a journal of chronic ill-temper and ill-manners, which rejoices in being edited by Mons. FORNEY:

After having published from "the records now under the control of Judge Holt" a string of affidavits, which have been proved to contain not one single word of truth, and which Judge Holt required the Chronicle to state that the false papers published were never upon the files of his bureau, nor had any connection with its records, nor were ever under his control, it does not avail the Chronicle to impugn the truth of the meanest creature that ever walked God's foot-stool. It stands before the world convicted of falsehood and complicity with crime. It stands forth self-convicted of having lied willingly, lied intentionally, lied knowingly, and with premeditation and malice aforethought; lied to save itself, lied to screen criminals, lied to accommodate perjurers, lied simply to serve its inexorable task master, lied plainly, openly and unequivocally, because the truth would have condemned it and all its clan.

Every nation, we suppose, has some peculiar national vice or failing. That of the Carthaginians was bad faith; that of the Russian is drunkenness; ours, like that the Cretans, is lying. Every body knows it: it is patent and palpable to all the world. The lie given, even to a soldier, is no longer cause of the duello. It is a vice so common as to have ceased to be disreputable. Gen. ROUSSEAU lately pronounced a statement made by Gen. SHERIDAN false. In the times of Sir JONAH BARRINGTON, Irishmen fought for infinitely less. Gen. WADE HAMPTON pronounced Gen. SHERIDAN'S statement as to the burning of Columbia wilfully untrue. Perhaps because he was a rebel, and therefore no gentleman, the matter ended so.

At every Presidential election, from that of JOHN QUINCY ADAMS to 1860, a store of lies, of all kinds and colours, poured over the country, unsavoury and rancid, multiplying like vermin, and welcome to partizans on either side. At every Congressional and State election, a similar eruption, confined within narrower limits, rained lies upon the land, thick as the frogs with which MOSES afflicted the land of PHARAOH. The Press of the North spawns lies as a fish does its ova, not periodically like the fish, but without abatement or intermission. To invent lies for partizan service long ago became a profitable and paying, and therefore respectable avocation. The lie equivocal, the lie circumstantial, the lie direct, all are in demand, and have a market-value. The lightning travels along the telegraph wires, weary with the load of lies it bears from correspondents of Northern journals. Lately they have arrived in flocks, like birds of passage, about General GRANT and the President. "Out of the mouth of three or four witnesses" only, now, is any thing established. Affidavits and oaths were long ago made so common and so continually demanded in judicial proceedings, that the National vice was aggravated into perjury, which became almost as common and chronic as lying. If any angel registers all the oaths that are daily taken under acts of Congress, he can have little time for recreation. The negro swears, and buys the right to vote with his oath. He would as soon swear one thing as another. It is a matter of perfect indifference to him.

Once, a question of veracity was a serious matter. Now, it is altogether unimportant, even on the floors of Congress. The columns of advertisements and the sandwiched puffs in newspapers alike teem with lies. To 'be like a bulletin' became a common expression in the later days of the French Empire. Official reports of land and naval battles are no more reliable now than they were then. We have read reports of more than one, which would have answered quite as well for Waterloo or Borodino. We hardly know the truth about a single battle of the late war. About everything that occurred, the columns of the Northern journals glittered, and flashed and scintillated with lies. They lied about the relative numbers of troops, about the details of battle, about the exchange of prisoners, about everything which would bear being lied about. Nor were the Southern journals free of that vice; but those of the North were immeasurably their superiors in the art of fabrication. They continue to improve, also. The New York Tribune has printed hundreds of lies about outrages on freedmen in the Southern States. Nobody ever dreams of believing anything stated by a newspaper as a fact, unless it is agreeable to him to believe it, because it injures a political or personal enemy, or recounts some act of depravity or crime or some scandal, which are always and equally acceptable to the pious and the perverse. To an impartial and indifferent looker-on, truths as well as lies now require indorsers.

You are never certain, now, whether even a Senator or a President speaks the truth or a lie. Daily, the President's veracity is impugned. To be a Senator is no longer necessary to be a gentleman or a man of truth. To be a Member of the House is rather evidence of disrepute. The Pulpit as well as the press, lies, when to lie is for the good of the Church. Committees of the House of Representatives are appointed for the express purpose of condensing lies and perjuries into the concentrated quintessence of falsehood and fabrication, in respect to riots in Memphis and New Orleans, and to defame and libel a whole people by collected, false and exaggerated statements of people of every sort, in respect to the treatment of Northern prisoners captured by Confederates; while they are instructed not to inquire as to the treatment of Confederates in Northern prisons, where they were systematically, purposely, wilfully, wantonly, in pursuance of orders, and without the possibility of an excuse, starved, abused, beaten, frozen and murdered.

A Bureau of Military Injustice, shoddy-imitation of the Star Chamber and Inquisition, is not choice as to the sort of testimony which its paid pimps and procurers purchase for it, with money furnished by the Government; and under its auspices it is attempted, by means of false and perjured testimony, written out by the Chief of the Bureau, the Procureur-General d' Injustice himself, to convict the Chief of a conquered Republic of eleven States, of complicity in the base, savage, brutal crime of assassination. The atmosphere of that putrid city, which reeks with the impurities and abominations of a political Sodom, and dishonours the name of WASHINGTON, becomes heavy and oppressive with lies that swarm thick as the animalculae that cause the cholera;—Washington, which ought to relinquish the name of the Father of his country, and take instead that of the Father of Lies.

A little while since, it was reported, with all necessary circumstantiality of detail, that President DAVIS had visited some town in Vermont, had been refused admission to the grounds of some one who coarsely refused it, had been insulted by the people and reviled by some female who had lost a son in the civil war. In a little while it appears that the whole tale was a fabrication. It was reported that Generals BEAUREGARD and MAGRUDER were hissed at the exchange, in the city of New York. General MAGRUDER was never in the exchange. These are but samples of the daily fabrications of ingenious malignity. Who has ever known a speech made on one side to be fairly, honestly and truthfully reported by the journals on the other? Who has ever known a partizan journal voluntarily retract a slander published upon a political opponent?

Is it not possible for the press to initiate a reform, and to abate to some extent this scandalous and abominable vice, this disease which is eating out the very vitals of the nation, and, like an old English Attainder, working corruption of blood? So long as the law multiplies oaths and affidavits, false swearing will be common. We have witnessed a thousand instances of rank perjury in the courts. It is the rarest of things to read an honest and strictly truthful answer in chancery. We have known lawyers in successful practice, who were regular suborners of perjury, in the matter of answers in chancery, and affidavits for continuance. We have seen men obtain changes of venue, by swearing what they themselves, and every one else, knew to be false.

For these things there is perhaps no remedy; but the Press is to a great extent, if not almost wholly, the cause of political lying, and the Press can initiate a reform. Why should it not be deemed dishonourable for a press to publish lies, knowing them to be such? It is dishonourable among gentlemen. Are Editors no longer gentlemen? Do lies prove so profitable that it is worth while, by resorting to them, or buying them of lying correspondents, mercenaries sent out to travel and report private conversations, mangled and distorted so as to bear no resemblance to the truth,—is it worth while, when lies are so common and cheaply purchased as to have become of little value, by putting them in circulation, to forfeit all claims to honour and common honesty?

It is absurd to prate of 'higher civilization,' or any civilization at all, to build churches and pay divines and listen to sermons, and pretend to christianity, when it can be truly said that the word of a full-blooded Muskaki or Shawnee Indian is more to be depended on as evidence than the oaths of white men? It is not true, as to this vice, that

"Vice is a monster of so hideous mien,
As to be hated needs but to be seen;"

for lying has ceased to be repulsive, and has almost arisen to the dignity of an art. For the sake of common decency, and for its own sake, the press ought to commence a reform, and to cease to lie and to slander and libel men.

THE VOICE OF MASSACHUSETTS.

The Republican State Convention of Massachusetts, composed of 1417 Delegates, was held at Worcester on the 11th of September. Among the Resolutions adopted were the following:

Resolved, That the conduct of President Andrew Johnson, his fellowship with the foes of the country, who are plotting in peace for the success of their conspiracy which failed in the war; his usurpations of unlawful powers, as well as the flagrant abuse of powers confided to him; his persistent determination to evade and defy the laws and defeat the will of the people as declared in them; his removal of faithful cabinet and military officers for no other reason than that they stood in the way of his hostile purposes; his deliberate and successful endeavors to continue and aggravate disorder and insecurity of person and property in southern communities, resulting at times in the massacres of innocent citizens, all made more conspicuous and painful by his perverse character and disregard of the proprieties of his high station, all render his continuance in office the constant cause of the gravest anxiety, and make it imperative to employ every constitutional mode of curbing and resisting him, and if necessary to deprive him of all power to harm. We, therefore, in behalf of the people of Massachusetts, while declaring our approval of the past measures of congress to arrest the career and defeat the plans of this dangerous and desperate man, pledge also in the future to that body the fullest support in such constitutional measures as in its wisdom it may find it necessary to resort to in furtherance of the same end, even in the exercise of extraordinary power to remove from office this destroyer of the public peace and the enemy of the government itself.

Resolved, That we thank our senators and representatives in congress for their resistance to the usurpations of the president, and for their earnest endeavors to establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, and secure the blessings of liberty in the country which was deprived of civil government by the rebellion.

Massachusetts, therefore, declares in favor of deposing the President. If New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio are carried by the Democrats, the notions of Radicalism may be slightly changed, and it may become less rampant and more circumspect.

HENRY WILSON, or the person who goes by that name, delivered himself of a speech, laudatory of the Radical party, stuffed with falsehoods from one end of it to the other. This is but one of a score:

During these thirteen years the republic has been the theater of a gigantic struggle between the contending forces of a brutal and degrading barbarism on the one hand and a humane and Christian civilization on the other. Deeds have been wrought on the one side against country, liberty, justice and humanity, that have brought dishonor to the actors that will deepen through the ages and blacken the pages which shall bear them down to the coming generations. Deeds have been performed on the other side, for country and humanity, that bring the dews of blessing down from the heavens, and will live forever in the hearts and memories of mankind.

It is a sublime impudence, that enables a man to make such assertions as these, when a devastated South, sacked and plundered every where by the legions of a "humane and christian civilization," gives him the lie in a chorus of voices louder than a thousand thunders. It required almost as much nerve to eulogize that most merciless and tyrannical of despots, EDWIN M. STANTON, and the monster of Public Injustice, HOLT. The jubilation of WILSON over the certainty of negro supremacy in ten States, in which the Higher Civilization has succeeded in securing the "brutal and degrading barbarism of negro governments," is simply disgusting, as are the vote of thanks of the Convention to Southern enfranchised, and the glorification at the establishment of "good government and peace" in Tennessee. Have we not truly said, that lying is the National Vice?

Of President JOHNSON, Mr. HENRY WILSON spoke thus:

Time, it is said, brings about revenges. Perhaps it may so happen that an outraged nation that is master of presidents, congresses and generals may bid this man—drunk at least with unreasoning passion—descend from that lofty position from which he smites down her honored statesman and her brilliant general, and go back to that famous Tennessee village where his abilities will find an appropriate sphere of action in filling again the office of village alderman. It is not given to men of the capacity of Andrew Johnson, however lifted up to exalted positions, to belittle Edwin M. Stanton or Phillip H. Sheridan.

That is pretty cool, and decidedly rich for HENRY WILSON. He, of all men, has the least right to sneer at the origin or former occupation of other men. It is a base and mean and low thing in any man to do so. It is most base and mean and low in WILSON, who does not, it has often been asserted and published, even wear his own original name. That he has risen to distinction from a low origin and humble occupation, is an honour to him, so far as he has risen by honourable means. But it is no honour to him to sneer at others, who at least, were never below him in life.

—Queen Victoria's book sells in England for $5 50, and in America for $2.

—In Havana telegraph operators are obliged to wear a uniform when on duty and a sword on state occasions.

—The tobacco crop in the Connecticut valley is cut off fifty per cent. this year.

THE Crawford county Forum, in Ohio, calls the national debt a "big swindle," the five-twenties, "bonds of iniquity," the republican majority a "brute mob," and the last war a "great massacre."

It calls things by their right names: and so does the New York Herald in the following sentences, in which, speaking of the Radical party, it says:

Trying the issue of the first, they, through the negro, roll ignorance to the summit and demand the nation to look on and worship. The white man must cling to the black and look to him for national regeneration. Our political sun is growing so refulgent that we must no longer look at it except through a dark medium. Black becomes the national color, and the republic, by the radical party, is forced into mourning. True to the fanatical spirit which sways the minds of those who cry party first and country afterward, the radicals, to make the ballot surer, to make the national wreck more complete, to sink all that intelligence holds of value in the once proud United States, find the proconsular system to be a necessity, and forthwith five dictatorships spring into existence upon a soil which we haughtily boast is part of the republic. Down with the white! up with the black! and lo! at the word black stands where white stood, and white abjectly takes the place of black. Ignorance is at a premium and intelligence is no longer a virtue.

THE HUMAN FROG.

From the St. Louis Republican.]

There is a man on exhibition in London who calls himself "Natator," or the human frog, and who performs feats under water. Mr. F. Buckland has examined him, and makes a report thereupon. "Natator" practices in an aquarium, and the following are some of his feats:

He descends and eats, under water, a sponge-cake or a bun. He opens his mouth to show that he has really swallowed it. It is most difficult to swallow cake under water without also swallowing the water. It requires three years' practice to do this performance with safety; for if, when under water, he should happen to cough, the water would enter, he would instantly be choked, and a serious accident would ensue.

Ascending to the surface, a soda water bottle is handed to him; he dives with it to his perch at the bottom, and drinks down the contents, viz: a half-penny-worth of milk; he chooses milk because of the color, and in order that the audience may see that he actually drinks it from the bottle; this is a most difficult trick, as it is hard to swallow the milk without the water getting into the mouth.

A lighted pipe is handed to him; he takes a few whiffs above water, and then descends with it; when under water, he manages somehow to keep it alight, and to emit bubbles, which, coming to the surface, burst in little puffs of tobacco smoke. Coming to the surface, he shows that his pipe is still alight.

He is a young man, twenty years old, five feet seven and a half inches in stature, and nine stone six pounds in weight; he is slightly built, but exceedingly well made and muscular. His pulse, on coming out of the water, gave one hundred and forty-eight beats to the minute; twenty minutes after, they were ninety-two to the minute.

When he first began to practice long stays under water, some four or five years since, he used to suffer from severe headaches, but now these have quite disappeared; he never has rheumatism, or other ache or pain in any form, though he goes through his performance at half-past ten every night, and sometimes twice a day. The water in his aquarium he generally manages to keep at a temperature of about sixty-two degrees, but the warmer the water is the longer he can stay in, and the easier his performances become. The longest time he has remained under water at a stretch has been sixty-nine seconds, and last Saturday week he remained sixty-four; his ordinary tricks require from ten to thirty seconds under water.

A GAME MAN.

How a Fowl Fortune Was Made.

From the New York Gazette.]

One of the places in this city where the people, en masse, surge and tide through, is Fulton market, and in the midst of that labyrinthian maze of stalls, stands and tables, the famous Mr. A. Robbins keeps a chicken stall. It is a very easy matter to find his place of business—direct your steps towards the center of the market, stumble over a mass of unsavory pickle tubs, pass by a sound as of scraping tripe, mediate between long rows of fresh slaughtered sheep and calves, turn a corner by some golden cheeses as large as the new moon, smell the aroma of the country and the spring time in the rolls of yellow butter at your left hand, and, the moment any game comes in sight, ask for Mr. Robbins, and, although he deals in robins, yet out of pity, or for some other reason, he calls them pigeons.

Mr. Robbins is a much younger looking man than one expects to find, when he has been told that he has made a couple million of dollars selling chickens! He is the famous chicken millionaire, and though so very rich he attends to his own business. He has been in the poultry business thirty-five years, thirty-one of which have been beneath the lucky roof of Fulton market. His stall is not a large one, and yet he sells upon an average 2000 chickens a day the year through, which would equal 730,000 a year. His business amounts to several hundred thousand dollars a year. There is a very cosy little office in one corner of his stall, ornamented with full length portraits of some of the wild game in which he deals, which literally is not large enough to swing a cat in. On the marble-topped counters of Mr. Robbins' chicken arrangement may be found ducks, geese, turkeys, English snipe, woodcocks, prairie hens, English pheasants, black grouse, wild pigeons, venison, roasting pigs, sweet breads, etc. Everything which has wings, that man is fond of eating, can here be found, with from twelve to twenty men to wait on customers, and attend to the business. Besides supplying the public, he has orders for hotels, ships, restaurants, etc., and is in fact the largest chicken dealer in the United States.

All parts of the country are laid under contribution to supply his stalls with game. Partridges come from Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Long Island and the west; the best canvas-backs come from Havre de Grace, Sandusky, Ohio, and Mississippi; the mallard ducks and wood ducks—the only ducks that light on trees—are caught at the great lakes, while the black ducks and broad bills come from the sea shore. In winter the canvas-back ducks are the favorite game with the people; just now woodcocks, chickens and partridges are the best and most popular.

Bridget is not always sent to market to do the buying for the family. Many American ladies attend to their own household duties. Mrs. H. W. Beecher can often be seen in Fulton market, with her basket upon her arm, purchasing chickens and wild game of Mr. Robbins; the face of Mrs. G. S. Robbins, who took so prominent a part in the soldiers' hospital during the war, is another of those familiar to the denizens of Fulton market.

Although Mr. Robbins has accumulated such a vast fortune that we might suppose he could afford to retire, yet he prefers, and does, personally attend to his own business. He has an elegant brown stone residence on Remsen street, in Brooklyn, which is valued at $150,000, and the furniture inside of it is said to have cost a fabulous sum. Going up a broad flight of stone steps, you pass beneath an arched doorway into a vestibule where some elaborately carved marble vases, standing almost as high as your head, attract attention. The halls and drawing rooms of the house are large and lofty, beautifully carved overhead in panels, and frescoed. Mr. Robbins does not stop to take his breakfast at home, but leaves his house for the market every morning between the hours of four and five o'clock. Some of his men get there as early as two o'clock. He is an expert salesman, and can pick out a chicken "to a dot," let you call for whatever size you will. In personal appearance he is a medium sized man, rather stoutly built, with a full face and black hair, slightly sprinkled with silver. He has deep hazel eyes and wears black chin whiskers. He leaves the market at 12 o'clock m., and the rest of the day enjoys life, riding out with his family or a few friends. He makes the most of each day as it passes, and leaves the morrow to care for itself.

—At the present time Brazil furnishes a large proportion of the diamonds of commerce, the celebrated mines of Golconda being so nearly exhausted as to rent for a few dollars a year. Other localities in India are, however, rather more prolific. In the United States they have been obtained in Rutherford county, N. C., and in Hall county, Ga., and very recently quite a number have been found in California, principally in El Dorado and Amador counties.

—In Chicago, a few days ago, Dr. Charles Pertholdy was called on to attend a daughter, eighteen years old, of G. Aurbach. She was considered at the point of death, and was speechless. The doctor, under pretense of making a private examination, induced all others to leave the room, when he ravished the girl. She did not die, but in three or four days recovered sufficiently to acquaint her father with what had happened. The police were put upon the track of the doctor, but he has thus far managed to elude them.

—There are no letters "held for postage" at the Providence (R. I.) office. A wealthy gentleman visits the office every week and furnishes stamps for all letters that require it. What motive prompts him to this action is not known, but it is said that some years ago he suffered loss to a large amount through the failure of a letter to reach its destination.

—"The Devil's Auction" is the horrifying title of a spectacular piece to be brought out at Barnum's museum at New York next week.

NOTICE
—TO—
GAS CONSUMERS.
IN compliance with a pledge made in their communication of February last, to the Hon. Mayor and Board of Aldermen, the Memphis Gas-Light Company have determined to reduce the price on their sales of Gas supplied on and after the First Day of December next to the lowest rate then deemed possible, allowing a small profit on the capital invested, and pledge themselves that the price then established shall range among
THE LOWEST RATES CHARGED in other Southern and Southwestern cities.
Their apparatus, lately at great expense improved and extended, enables them to supply as pure, strong and brilliant gas light as that supplied any where in the United States.
With reference to a much threatened opposition in business, which they do not deem probable, the Company hereby give notice to their patrons and the public, that in case of an actual competition they will supply their demands at One-Third, or Less than One-Third the Rates Established by such Competitors.
Their Works were constructed with a view of remunerating the owners for their investments, as well as for the public convenience. Notwithstanding such intention, they will sell or furnish Light at a Mere Fraction of the price asked by any competing or opposing Company.
JAMES M. WILLIAMSON,
President.

AUCTION.

The Buntyn Tract at Public Sale.
DESIROUS of carrying out as speedily as possible the provisions of the Will of G. Buntyn, deceased, in the disposal of his Homestead Tract, we will offer at Public Sale the remaining portion of the Tract, consisting of about SEVENTY-FIVE LOTS, varying from two to ten acres in size, embracing with the field lands all the wood land lots on the Tract.
The high reputation for fine health which this locality enjoys, and the choice of easy and quick communication with the city by railway or dirt road, give to these lands advantages that must be apparent to the business men of Memphis, as a cheap, convenient and pleasant point at which to establish their family residences, combining so fully the advantages of town and country.
With the object of removing all difficulty in selling, we shall offer the property upon the following easy TERMS—One-fourth cash, balance in 6, 12, 18 and 24 months with interest. Warranty deeds given and deed of trust taken, waiving redemption.
Every lot put up will be sold without reserve. Plans of the lots may be obtained at the office of the Auctioneers; each lot being staked so as to be examined before the sale.
Sale will be upon the premises, on WEDNESDAY, the 16th of October, 1867.

PUBLIC SALE
Of Three Hundred Acres Suburban Land on Ten Years' Credit.
I PROPOSE to sell at Public Sale, to the Highest bidder,
On Thursday, 14th November, 1867,
About 3?0 acres Field and Forrest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement of value.
In stating the advantages of this property I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for Church and School Privileges combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence within the vicinity of Memphis affords.
The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption, and is free from any incumbrance.
The Subdivision of the Grounds will be in lots of about Five Acres, according to plans to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers. The avenues will be opened, and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.
Being Determined to Sell I shall offer the following liberal
TERMS: One-tenth Cash, the balance in Ten Annual Instalments, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues. — N. M. TREZEVANT.

WANTED—THE PATENT
AURORA OIL.
We want men everywhere to study their own INTEREST. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one-half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is NO MORE explosive than a tallow candle. Any Lamp that will burn Coal Oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney—it does not smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for its manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from the city of Memphis and bills while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than we have stated. A single county is a small fortune to the man of enterprise, and the right to a State is untold worth.

LOST.—A fine gold watch was lost yesterday at the Overton. See lost column. The finder, by leaving it at the hotel office, will be liberally rewarded.

LOOK AND SEE.—The large and commodious building No. 206 Front street, is for rent, and offers superior inducements to parties desiring a roomy establishment. See card in another column.

BOUND OVER.—The man Barney Conners, accused of stealing some wood on the Raleigh road a few days since, was up before Mr. Justice Miller yesterday, and after a careful hearing of the case, was required to give bonds for his appearance at the circuit court.

A SHARP THIEF.—A smart looking yellow boy, who calls himself E. Berry, was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing a razor and some other small articles from a dealer on Front street. The goods were found on his person. Mr. Justice Walton very properly sent him up to a higher tribunal.

THE first bale of cotton from Crittenden county, Arkansas, came forward yesterday, and was consigned to Messrs. Farrington & Howard, cotton factors and wholesale grocers, 268 Front row. It was raised on the plantation of T. Lamberson, Esq., a short distance above Mound City, and classes strict middling.

TAYLOR, GAY & RUTLAND.—The grocery establishment of these gentlemen is filled to overflowing with choice and elegant supplies of every description, and we recommend our readers, especially country people, to give them a call, as they are clever gentlemen and enterprising merchants.

A STERLING FIRM.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Williamson, Hill & Co., Front row. This house is so well and favorably known in this city and the surrounding country as to render any commendation unnecessary. They are gentlemen of enterprise and liberality, and we advise a perusal of their card.

THE PRE-ADAMITE HISTORY OF THE WORLD.—Dr. Jones could not possibly have chosen a more interesting theme for his lecture at the "Tabernacle" next Tuesday night, than the above. All scientific and reading people will be attracted by such a discussion, and a full attendance may be counted upon.

LARGE APPLES.—The largest specimen of apples we have seen this season was left at our office yesterday. They came from the orchard of J. H. Alsbrook, about ten miles from the city on the Raleigh road. They weighed twenty-one ounces, and measured on an average fifteen inches in circumference.

RECOVERED.—The silverware stolen from the saloon of Harry Weatherbee some days since, was recovered yesterday by the detectives. They traced it to a house in Chelsea one of the thieves. A negro was arrested. The other is still at large, but hopes are entertained that he will be captured to-day. In addition to the silverware a gold watch, the property of Mrs. Osgood, was found, together with some other articles, which leads the authorities to believe that an organized band of negro burglars exist in our midst. The clues already obtained are rather strong, and there is no reason why they should not be put where they can do no harm.

COTTON HOUSE.—In another column will be found the card of Messrs. Townes & Torrance, cotton factors and commission merchants, No. 206 Front street. Dr. Townes is well known in North Mississippi, particularly in Grenada. The friends of these gentlemen will be glad to learn that they are doing a thriving business, and they will be glad to receive consignments from their customers and patrons.

FAST TIME.—By information received yesterday, we learn that the Great Western Dispatch and Cotton Express Line transport freight in seven days from New York to Memphis, and vice versa. The clever agent at this point, Enoch Taylor, Esq., whose office is 304 Front street, will give any further information required. This line has always given the most entire satisfaction, and it will doubtless acquit itself in the future as in the past.

OUR WEEKLY.—Our mammoth Weekly is published to-day. It contains the usual amount of reading matter of all kinds, consisting of editorials, selections, brevities, state news, the latest local items, choice poetry, commercial, financial and river news, and in fact all the latest intelligence received by rail, mail, steamers and telegraph. Copies for mailing may be had at the counting room, No. 13 Madison street. Price ten cents.

MORE NEW COTTON.—The first bale from Madison county in this state, came in yesterday, consigned to Messrs. Delap & Co., No. 212 Front street. The bale was raised on the plantation of Allen DeBerry, several miles west of Jackson, and was gathered and shipped some ten days since. It has been detained somewhere on the route. This bale has been well handled, is of good staple, and will class middling.

N. S. GREEN & CO.—The card of this house will be found in our columns to-day. The gentlemen composing this firm are well known throughout the valley of the Mississippi and its tributaries, as successful and energetic steamboatmen. Capt. Dan Able has long stood among the foremost of our business men, while Capt. Nat. Green is equally well known as the popular superintendent of the mail line of steamers plying between this city and Little Rock. Going into business with large capital, and an extensive acquaintance, they cannot but be successful. Their stock of liquors is not excelled in the west, and they are determined to deal with customers on such favorable terms as will insure a large share of patronage.

BALL PLAY.—The admirers of "the manly game" may expect a treat on Monday, the 23d inst., when a first class match is to come off on the grounds near the State hospital, head of Union street, between an "eleven" of the Crescent City cricket club of New Orleans, and an "eleven" of the St. George cricket club of this city. Play will commence at 10 o'clock a. m., and the game not to be that abortion in cricket, an unfinished "one day" match, but will be played out. No doubt a fine display of cricket may be calculated on. Ample accommodations have been made for spectators, tents and seats having been secured for that purpose. And it is to be hoped that a goodly attendance, especially of the fair sex, will encourage the game by their welcome presence on the ground. On the following day a match at base ball will be played between a "nine" of the Enterprise, (Champion) base ball club of this city, and a "nine" from New Orleans. We are at liberty to say, from intelligence received yesterday, that the New Orleans cricket and base ball clubs will leave that city on Saturday, the 21st inst., for Memphis, and will arrive at Grand Junction the next morning at nine o'clock. A strong delegation of the Memphis clubs will meet them at that point, and escort them to the city. The Memphis and Charleston railroad will furnish tickets for the round trip for one fare, and the train will leave the depot Sunday morning at 6:40. The party, on arrival, will proceed to the Gayoso house, where quarters have been secured for them, and dine. After Monday's play they will attend the theater in a body. The various matches will no doubt be alike pleasant to the conquerors and the conquered.

THE GAS QUESTION.—From the letter of Mr. J. W. Williamson, president of the Memphis gas light company, published Monday, we clip the following extract:
"Newspaper controversy may possibly serve to build a gas works in this age of improvement. We have not learned that it will operate one, hence having corrected a misapprehension entertained by a portion of the press, and some others, we close without presenting any new features or remark calling for a rejoinder. Referring to our advertisement in the city papers, and with the kindest of feelings, personally, for our threatened competitors, we leave the matter for the courts, the people and time to decide."
In a former communication he saw proper, with the assistance of his wordy secretary, to insult the people of Memphis by telling them that they were not intelligent enough to vote on this question, which so materially affected their interests. Afterwards, when compelled to do so, he reduces the price of gas, dating from the time that the new company will go into operation. And now this would be "pro bono publico" man, tells us that "newspaper controversy may possibly serve to build a gas works in this age of improvement." He and his concern, who have been imposing upon the citizens for a number of years, may yet learn that an opposition to this northern monopoly, will be not only built but successfully operated; and it may be well for the citizens to remember that this abortionate institution, called the Memphis gas light company, reduce their prices, not from honest feelings, but only when compelled to do so, fearing that so large a dividend may not be paid to their stockholders on the other side of the Ohio.

ELEVATING SAND.—We publish below an article clipped from the columns of the St. Louis Democrat, of the 16th, giving a description of the "Patent Elevator Belle Ida." We learn that she will be here this fall and winter for the purpose of supplying the city contractors and builders with pure silicia sand:
"Some months since we paid a visit, in company with a number of prominent citizens, to the sand elevator, originated by Dr. J. H. McLean, of this city, then in operation at the foot of Mound street, and at the time gave a description of the machinery, etc. Since then Capt. Thomas Lapsley has taken charge of the elevator, and the improvements he has made on the original machinery is almost beyond conception. Everything works smoothly, and even without the least jar, and with the regularity of clock work. The stopping on the center and jerking of the machinery, as when first put in operation, having been entirely remedied by the genius and mechanical skill of Capt. Lapsley. The elevator on the Belle Ida consists first of a staging or frame work fifty-two feet in length, which is so fastened to an upright frame work, just forward of the wheelhouse, where it works upon iron joints, allowing the end reaching the stern to be lowered by a windlass, to such depth as may be necessary to reach the sand bed—the elevation at the stationary point, and the length of the frame being such as to enable the elevator to work in any depth of water, from five to twenty-five feet. Over this frame, working upon long iron points, so arranged as to form an endless chain, work thirty-two iron buckets or rather scoops, eighteen inches long, fifteen broad and ten deep, which, descending upon the under side of the staging, strike the sand bar at an angle sufficient to fill them, and passing up they run along the upper side until they reach the highest point of the frame-work, when passing around, the water contained in the bucket is first thrown out clear over the hopper, which receives the sand dropping from the scoop as it reaches a perpendicular, the scoop then passing on to again be filled, and being followed in endless succession by other full scoops, and preceded by the empty ones. As the sand is emptied in the hopper it is received on another endless chain, this time carrying flat iron plates, running at right angles with the "elevator," which in turn carries it to the barge, where a half dozen men armed with shovels distribute it evenly around the deck. All the machinery is driven by an engine which drives the boat, but which differs from ordinary boat engines by working with a driving wheel instead of shafts, by which arrangements the cog-wheels are thrown out of connection with the running-gear of the boat, and into connection with the elevator machinery, the boat meantime being anchored by dropping four spars or timbers, two just forward and two just aft of the cabin, and all close to the hull, holding her steadily to the spot while the machinery is loading the barges. The sand raised by the elevator from the bed of the river, where the current is strongest, is pure silicia, the action of the water freeing it from all loam or foreign substance, and when properly mixed with lime, forms a cement harder than rock itself and perfectly impervious to water; walls in the construction of which it is used being free from all moisture or dampness. Such is not the case with the sand that has been used by our builders, as it is procured from bars at low water, and is very fine and dusty, and composed of over thirty-three per cent. of loam, which becomes absorbed by the lime, leaving the mortar porous and spongy, and of a necessity weakening the wall, which in course of time cracks and crumbles to the earth. All this is remedied by the use of the pure silica sand, procured by the elevator from the bed of the river, and persons engaged in building would find it greatly to their advantage if they would give this matter their serious attention, and see that contractors use none but the best quality of sand in the construction of their edifices. For sewer building and street improvement purposes, there can be no comparison between the silica and sand generally used. In laying the Nicolson pavement, thousands of dollars would be saved to the city yearly in repairs, were the contractors required to use pure and good sand instead of the light, loamy stuff with which the streets are now laid; and as it can be furnished in any quantity and cheaper than the poor stuff, we would respectfully call the attention of Mr. Homer, city engineer, to the subject, hoping that he may have an eye single to the interests of the now over-burdened tax-payers, and see that contractors are required to use none but pure and lasting sand in the construction of both streets and sewers. In connection with the subject, we would state in proof of our assertion as to the great superiority of the silica furnished by the elevator, the Belcher sugar refining company had the bar sand, so generally used, analyzed by competent chemists, and find it to contain thirty-three per cent. of clay and vegetable matter, and in order to give durability to the reservoir and the immense stack connected with their works, would use none but sand procured by the elevator from the bed of the river in their construction. The sand elevator, we understand, can furnish from five to seven hundred loads per day, and that, too, twenty per cent. lower than bar sand, and the only excuse offered by contractors, who will admit its superiority, for not using it exclusively, is the fact that it requires a little more labor and a little more lime than the sand which they now use. If those out of whose pockets the money really has to come will longer submit to the use of an inferior material in the construction of their buildings, we, at least, are not to blame.

THE MILLIGAN CASE.—This case, which has excited so much public feeling, was up again yesterday before the United States court, Mr. E. Yerger, Gen. Wallace and Mr. Anderson appearing for the respondent, and the district attorney, M. L. Perkins, for the government. The counsel for the defense submitted that the return of the lieutenant was inadequate in every particular, and made a motion that the same be amended, quoting authorities, etc. The district attorney replied in brief, but produced no authorities. His honor, Judge Swayne, said that the court had heard the arguments of the counsel for the respondent in full, but had not received that assistance from the United States district Attorney that was expected. The court would examine the papers, and from the light it had, would do the best it could, and probably give a decision on Thursday morning. "We take the papers."

A SCALPING DODGE.—The driver of a "scalping wagon" yesterday invited a boy about seventeen years of age, who wished to go from the Memphis and Ohio to the Memphis and Charleston depot, to ride on his wagon, telling him he would not charge him anything. On Third street, near Madison, he stopped and demanded pay. The boy told him he had promised to carry him free, when the fellow became very abusive, and finally took from the boy all the money he had, amounting to $10 60, and then put him off the wagon. The boy reported the case to the police office, and the driver will have a hearing before the police court this morning.

GOOD STOCK.—The fast approaching of the completion of the Nicolson pavement on our principal streets, induces many of our "fair women and brave men" to indulge in the luxury of a fashionable turn-out. At no place in the city can the necessary rig be better obtained than at the stables of Messrs. Dismukes & Kellogg, No. 61 Monroe street. Their horses are kind and fast, while their buggies ride as easy as easy can be. In a visit to their stables yesterday, we saw among other things about seventy-five of the finest mules in the country, and on inquiry learned that they were brought here by Maj. Evans, of Bourbon county, Kentucky, for sale. Let those who desire the long-eared tribe, call there.

Texas Tonic Syrup Cures Chills and Fever.—Proved in thousands of trials, and rapidly superceding the many nostrums that have been foisted upon the community. Pleasant, safe, and above all, sure to cure, it is used everywhere in the Southwest, and never disappoints expectations. Mansfield & Higbee, sole proprietors, Memphis, Tenn.

[COMMUNICATED.]
LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN, September 16, 1867.
Editors Appeal:
Apart from the magnificent scenery and charming natural curiosities in the vicinity, there has been very little of interest occurred here during the past week. The greater number of visitors, who have been on the mountain during the past month, have made the briefest stay, made a rapid tour of the resorts, and passed away to other points. There are the fewest of these, who are aware of the comforts they fly, to seek the ills, they know not of, in less favored places. To my mind, there cannot be found in the south, and so easy of access, any other resort that compares at all favorably with this, in point of pure fresh air, healthful location, grandeur and extent of scenery, and other attractions, that go to make up an inviting summary of a delightful resort. The description of the numerous conveniences, etc., to be found here are fairly and reliably explained in the advertisement of Cooper & James in the APPEAL. Mr. Cooper labors assiduously to make guests enjoy their visit here; and southern people will find him a gentleman worthy of their patronage. As this grand mountain top offers innumerable inducements to them to make it a summer residence, we cannot but be surprised that our people fail to comprehend the advantages and neglect it, while they seek the uncomfortable and hot, fashionable watering places in the north, where they do not receive any respect, decent treatment or welcome from a heartless and hating people.
From this grand perch, whose crags and cliffs are in the sky, we view a field whose historic interest far surpasses any range of vision to be seen from any other mountain altitude on earth. Not the classic fields of Greece, the route of the ancient and modern campaigns in the Alps, nor even on the blood stained surface of Mexico, are there within a single range of view so many points of interest to which is attached the strange history incident to war. Along the dark wooded crest beyond Missionary ridge, we look on the gloomy field of Chickamauga, through whose deep shades and black recesses "the River of Death" flows as darkly as it did on one bloody day when the earth was made sad by a frightful and profitless battle. Thunder storms often are visible from this point, passing over the battle ground, and as their lightning leaps and flashes over the surface, and the roaring thunder rolls and reverberates through the ravines and along those wooded and rocky slopes, and then the misty smoke of rain waves along above them, the memories of four years ago rapidly crowd through our minds, and all the horrors of that ensanguined day come back to us, crowding in rapid succession scenes which, when tempered by the mellowing and hallowing influences of time, will make the historic fields as sacred as those of antiquity. Extending far northward and eastward, the war worn, furrowed crest and slopes of Missionary ridge lie in full view from our eyrie. Over all the surface of the smiling but desolate valley at its foot, the marks of war and battle are visible. Where the lamented and brave Cleburne and his stonewall held position against the hosts of soldiers in blue, the furrowed fields, ragged slopes, torn surfaces and grave-crowned heights, attest the invincible valor and immovable courage that was displayed there on that day of battle. From one point near the tunnel, visible from here, the line of gray, that looked like a thin mist on the mountain side, on the 24th day of November, 1863, was composed of those gallant and brave soldiers of the army of Tennessee, who fought like giants and held the enemy in check until night and fog covered the gloomy field. Beneath the dark curtain, our worn and broken army sullenly and slowly retreated down the defiles and through the forrest, over the hills and across the valleys far southward, and every mile of the long and weary march is visible from this place. To the soldiers, who participated in those thrilling scenes, the views of their battle-grounds bring to memory strange incidents that no accident will ever again produce. They are filled with few reminiscences of victory and pleasure. Sadness and distress and suffering are the ravens that croak of the past. At our feet lies the little battle-field of Lookout Mountain. Here it was said that the battle was in the clouds. It is a rare consolation to think that if the enemy fought in the clouds we fought above them, and at last were only driven out of place by orders, not by our antagonists. A thousand memorial marks remain to tell the horrors of the siege and assault. Every rock, stump and shell-torn tree has a history of defense, that will pass into legends and be transmitted through traditions far into the centuries to come. To us, every trifling momento, a twig, a bullet, a pebble, the relics of camps, etc., are interesting, because of the tale each one silently tells. Almost every visitor gathers them as treasures and relics of the days of war.
To-night a large party will gather on the mountain to participate in the festivities of the last grand ball of the season. If anything pleasing or interesting occurs, you will hear from COUSIN NOURMA.

PERSONAL.—We congratulate the music-loving portion of our citizens on the return of Mr. Henry Farmer, who is, we learn, engaged for the orchestra of the New Memphis theatre during the coming season. Mr. Farmer is a most accomplished master of the flute, and his presence, with that of the young virtuoso, Mr. Leo Wheat, already possessed of a European reputation as a pianist, must exert a happy influence in cultivating the public taste for the highest order of music.

THE COURTS.

LAW COURT.—The cases set for trial to-day are: 653 Hayden vs. Mallory et al; 655 Burton, Titus & Co. vs. Fletcher; 660 White vs. McGrath; 661 Drake et al. vs. Hill; 662 Irwin vs. O'Hern; 663 Waggener vs. Poston et al.; 664 Porter vs. Foster; 665 Laski vs. Shultz; 666 Ramsey vs. Prosper; 667 Skipwith vs. Dugan; 668 Stillman vs. Halbert; 669 Worsham vs. Stock; 670 Chandler vs. Pope et al.; 671 Mayers & Co. vs. Mahoney et ux; 672 Walt vs. Steamer St. Cloud; 673 Fletcher vs. Capers; 675 Duff et ux. vs. Haire et al.; 676 Skipwith vs. Dugan; 677 Allen vs. Sullivan; 678 O'Hern vs. Richards; 679 Meanns vs. Feston & Co.; 680 DuBose, use, vs. Baugh & Co.; 681 McKinney & Co. vs. Ball; 682 Cannovan, adm'r vs. Inman; 683 Cochran vs. Lippi; 684 Miller et al. vs. Mulvey, adm'x.; 685 Cowan vs. Irwin; 686 Cash vs. Boswell; 688 McPherson vs. Holland; 689 Mosby vs. Thornton; 690 Richards vs. Grace; 691 Burford vs. Irvine; 692 Fugia vs. Erskine; 693 Savage vs. Waignett; 694 Davis vs. M. & A. of M.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—The following cases are set for trial to-day: Nos. 194, 206, 207, 208, 209, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 223, 225, 226, 229, 235, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260.

UNITED STATES COURT.—The argument in the case of Millikin, habeas corpus, occupied the attention of the court on yesterday. The matter was taken under advisement by Justice Swayne, and a decision will be delivered in a day or two. Court adjourned until the usual hour to-day.

SHELBY CIRCUIT COURT.—The cases from No. 32 to 67 of yesterday's calendar will be taken up to-day. Also twenty other cases from 67 to 87 on the trial docket.

Valuable Library.—This morning, at ten o'clock, the sale of the Library of the late S. T. Morgan will commence at the Auction Rooms of W. H. Passmore & Co., No. 260 Second street, and will no doubt attract a large number of buyers, from the fact that such an opportunity rarely occurs to make selections from so valuable a collection of literature.

Extensive Sale of Building Lots.—On Saturday morning next, Monsarrat & Co. will sell at auction a large number of very desirable building lots, situated south of and adjoining the Overton tract, and within two or three squares of the terminus of the street railway. This auction sale is made in the face of a dull market, and but few willing to make investments; but those who know their interests will surely attend this sale, as they will have an opportunity of securing bargains which may not again offer. Every lot has been staked out, and will be sold, positively; hence, those who would secure bargains should attend. Omnibuses will leave Titus' block, Jefferson street, at ten o'clock on morning of sale, to take all who wish to attend.

No. 256 Front Street, Memphis, Tenn.
MEMPHIS, TENN., August 22, 1867.
DEAR SIR: As the business season is again approaching, I beg leave to call your attention to my card, hoping that my long residence in the city and prompt attention to business will afford my customers some guarantee of safety in my hands.
Under the many changes that have taken place in our city for the past four years, and still going on, I would advise the planters to look well to their interest, and select from among the many applicants for custom those of good standing and known responsibility, or many of them will be found as last season regretting their folly in selecting new and irresponsible houses when it is too late.
I find from the Cotton Statistics, now before me, that the stock remaining on hand and unsold, the first of September, cannot exceed sixty thousand bales, which must leave a deficit for the use of spinners, unless the vacuum is filled up from Europe.
I therefore look for better prices, and entertaining the opinion that the staple must open at or near thirty cents, would advise the planter to make as early shipments as possible, believing that the opening prices will be the best of the season. Yours truly,

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S
BILLIARD TABLES
THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the CAT-GUT CUSHION,
Manufactured by KAVANAGH & DECKER, and Patented Dec. 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 11.)
It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord of cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber and running the full length of the Cushion, which prevents the ball from bedding into the rubber and jumping from the table. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the Cushion.
The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 1000 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.
Kavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber drying-room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.
Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.
Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.

COMMISSION MERCHANT,
No. 276 Front Street,
MEMPHIS, TENN.
LIBERAL ADVANCES—Supplies at Wholesale Prices. Commission for selling Cotton, One Dollar per Bale.
To the Cotton Planters of West Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas:
The undersigned respectfully tenders his services as agent for the sale of your cotton in this city, and for the purchase of your supplies. The unfortunate termination of the late war, which so materially affected the best interests of the South, has also left its effect upon the Commission Business of this city, as transacted between planter and merchant. You doubtless well remember with what pertinacity (previous to the war), amounting in some instances to annoyance, you were solicited for your business at the rate of fifty cents per bale commission, free of drayage, and stored for twelve months without charge. Then (as will be again) the producer was the ruling element, and high rents, rich landlords and merchants were the result of planters' patronage. No people or occupation have been more seriously prostrated than planters and planting, and none so much deserve to be fostered and aided in their unfortunate changed condition. How that aid so much needed has been meted out you I opine too well know. Onerous government taxes in general, and a special tax upon your leading production, Cotton, large profits you have had to pay upon supplies furnished, commissions on sales ranging from $3 50 to $5 per bale, monthly storage at exorbitant prices and other expenses, as per reference to your account sales, as a sum total will leave you but little if anything upon which to rebuild your shattered fortunes, or to compete with the new order of affairs—free labor. When I withdrew from the Cotton and Commission Business in 1860, private reasons then led me to believe that I would never engage in it again. The solicitations of many friends that were former patrons, and a desire to promote the interest of the planting community, so far as my feeble efforts can go to do so, and the apparent want of gratitude exhibited to a community that in times past tended so materially to the prosperity of Memphis and its mercantile community, has determined me again to offer my services in the capacity as stated. The reduced stocks of cottons in the United States and short supplies in the hands of New England manufacturers has caused some advance in prices from the late depression, hence early sales may be prudent and remunerative; such was the case the past two seasons, and many planters have had cause to regret the acting upon the too common practice of holding and drawing upon their cottons. I would advise no planter to send forward his cotton notes. He wished it sold upon the first active market. It can be held at home much cheaper than in Memphis. My charges for selling cotton will be One Dollar per bale. Insurance effected in all cases if not instructed to the contrary. Shall buy your supplies from wholesale houses, giving you the benefit of same. In short, by strict attention to all the departments of our business, I hope to merit a large share of patronage.
Very respectfully,
se1 R. A. MOON.

NOTICE is hereby given to the heirs of Tilman Bettis, deceased, and all parties concerned, that we, as surviving executors of said estate, have this day filed our account as such, with John Loague, Clerk of the County Court of Shelby county, where parties concerned can come forward and examine same.

FRANKLIN
JOB PRINTING HOUSE
No. 15 West Court Street.
PRINTING AT THE LOWEST PRICES!
ANNUAL CIRCULAR.
MEMPHIS, September 1, 1867.
At the commencement of another Commercial Year the undersigned again tenders his services to the Merchants and Business Men of Memphis, and to all those desiring any kind of FINE JOB PRINTING.
The material of the Franklin Job Printing House consists of the most perfect PRESSES, and the newest and most beautiful styles of TYPES, BORDERS, SCRIPS, DESIGNS and ORNAMENTS now known to the art.
Particular attention will be paid to filling orders for Business Cards, Circulars, Letter Heads, Envelopes, Bill Heads, Tags, Receipt and Check Books, Bills Lading, Dray Tickets, and every description of Printing required in the successful production of business during the cotton season.
It will be the determination of the Proprietor in the future, as it has been in the past, to do the very BEST WORK, and the prices shall be as low as any house in the city.
MOTTO: FINE PRINTING PROMPTLY EXECUTED, AT LOW PRICES.
Thankful to my friends and patrons for the business of the past year, I solicit a continuance of their favors.
Respectfully,
se3 S. C. TOOF, Proprietor.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.
NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than McGIMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.
It is a labor saving invention, as well as an invaluable remedy in Scurvy, Scald Head, Eruptions of the skin and Piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the Teeth whitened and cleansed, Plate and Jewelry cleaned, Stains effectually removed from Carpets, Furniture, Clothes, Paint, Varnish or Marble, with the greatest facility and without injury to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known Soap which will wash Flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without fulling or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabrics. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties and which is so innocuous and safe. It is a home invention, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the South, and eventually will extend over the Yankee States, North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by C. P. McGimsey, Memphis, Tenn., and sold at the following places in the city at wholesale and retail: Page & Co's, Dean's, Taylor's Drug Store, Poplar street; King's, corner of Third and Adams; Oliver & Co.'s DeSoto Block, Madison street; will soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use. au16

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly

SECOND DRAWING

—OF THE—

Southern Asylum

LAND COMPANY,

TO TAKE PLACE AT

HERNANDO, MISS.,

AUGUST, 1867.

THE First Drawing, which took place at Hernando, Miss., on the 15th inst., was attended with unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few weeks elapsed from the inception of the enterprise to that event. $17,000 worth of tickets having been sold, a like amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the Managers, the affair was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner:

HERNANDO, Miss., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify that the above report of the First Drawing of the Southern Asylum is correct; and that the proceedings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justness unsurpassed by any Drawing of which we have any knowledge. The Managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.

Signed:
J. B. MORGAN,
ROBERT TEMPLE,
V. A. MERRIWETHER,
W. W. CAMPTON,
M. MAGEVENY,
JOHN AINSLIE,
Committee.

J. M. HALL, Clerk.

The Prizes drawn on this occasion numbered Forty-seven, and comprised lots in the vicinity of Memphis, Tenn., Corinth, Miss., and Hernando, Miss., deeds to which have been made to the lucky ticket-holders. For this, the Second Drawing, however, we are able to offer our patrons still more attractive inducements to interest themselves in our scheme. From a lengthy list of property, much of which has already been advertised to the public, we select the following:

OUR LIST OF PRIZES.

The First and Capital Prize.

Col. M. C. Galloway's valuable residence, corner of Court and Third streets, Memphis, one block only from the center of the city, and in the vicinity of all the Federal, State and County offices. Lot 37½ feet front by 83¾ deep. Valued at $20,000.

Second Prize.

A cottage residence of ten rooms, with lot 60x100, in the city of Chicago, Ill., only three-quarters of a mile from the heart of the city, and within one block of the street railroad intersecting every part of the city. Valued at $5000.

Third Prize.

One residence lot adjoining above property, 25x100 feet; very available for residence and desirably located. Valued at $800.

Fourth Prize.

One residence lot adjoining above property, 25x100 feet. Valued at $800.

Fifth Prize.

One residence lot adjoining above, also 25x100 feet. Valued at $800.

Sixth Prize.

A most valuable manufacturing site with a perpetual fall of 37 feet of water, situated in Winston county, Alabama, with 160 acres of land. Valued at $10,000.

Seventh Prize.

The Franklin Female Institute, at Holly Springs, Miss.; a handsome and well constructed school building, most eligibly located. This is very desirable property. Valued at $8000.

Eighth Prize:

Lot No. 5, in Hays' sub-division, Memphis, size 102x152 feet. A beautiful building lot. Valued at $2000.

Ninth Prize:

75¼ acres of woodland near Raleigh, Shelby county, Tennessee, distant from Memphis nine miles. This is very desirable, and an excellent prize. Valued at $2000.

Tenth Prize:

Cottage Residence, 5 rooms; lot 120x170 feet on Borland avenue, near Memphis and Charleston railroad, near corporation line. Valued at $4000.

Tickets $5 each. May be had of, or ordered through, any of the Company's agents, at the Central Agency, Memphis, Tenn., or of Col. James Strain, Hernando, Miss.

Stockholders, Directors and Officers of the Company are prohibited from purchasing or holding tickets in any of the drawings. The Company is simply the media for the purchase and sale of real estate between property holders and the general public. je26 1m

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

From the Chambers' Journal.]

DEAD VIOLETS.

Let them lie—ah, let them lie!
Plucked flowers—dead to-morrow;
Lift the lid up quietly,
As you'd lift the mystery
Of a buried sorrow.

Let them lie—the fragrant things,
All their souls thus giving;
Let no breezes ambient wings,
And no useless water springs,
Mock them into living.

They have lived—they live no more;
Nothing can requite them
For the gentle life they bore,
Which to up-yield in full store,
It did so delight them.

Yes, I ween, flower corses fair!
'Twas a joyful yielding;
Like some soul heroic, rare,
That leaps boldly forth in air,
For its loved one's shielding.

Surely, ye were glad to die
In the hand that slew ye;
Glad to leave the open sky,
And the airs that wandered by,
And the bees that knew ye;

Giving up a small earth-place,
And a day of blooming,
Here to lie in narrow space,
Smiling in this smileless face
With such sweet perfuming.

O ye little violets, dead!
Coffined from all gazes,
We will also smile and shed
Out of heart-flowers withered,
Perfume of sweet praises.

And as ye, for this poor sake,
Love with life are buying,
So, I doubt not, One will make
All our gathered flowers to take
Richer scent through dying.

MEMPHIS, September 18, 1867.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 44½, and by noon had gone up to 45½. Dealers here have not forgotten the sudden decline last week, and do not follow the eastern quotations so closely. The small amounts presented during the day were taken at 43 to 43½c.

Silver is scarce and buying at 32 to 34c for shipment.

Exchange is largely in excess of the demand, and eastern is sold at ¼ premium.

City scrip is in demand. It has a decided upward tendency, and 52c, which is the offering rate at the counter, is generally refused. Dealers sell at 55c.

County warrants are about to awaken from the lethargy into which they have recently fallen. The demand for them was improved to-day. Brokers buy at 68c and in one instance 70c was paid. Selling at 75c.

The buying rate for police scrip is 85c, but offerings are light. Selling at 90c.

Bonds and stocks are unchanged, with no sales reported.

It is hard to believe, but nevertheless true, that an extensive business has been done by selling postage and revenue stamps which have been already once used, and the cancellation of them in some way washed off. Parties have been punished more than once by the United States Circuit court for such offenses, and although the fraud is too contemptible to speak of in a single instance, yet a large profit may be made by pursuing it in an extensive manner.

Furthermore, there appears to be but little protection against such petty frauds, as it is not an unfrequent thing for parties to cancel stamps by simply making a dash across the face of them, which is really no cancellation at all, for the stamp with such a dash is as good on one instrument as another. But even when the law is complied with, by having the name and date written across the face, parties have been actually known to wash off the cancellation, which, with care, can be readily done, although the stamp will, on close examination, give evidence of it. Where a stamp is cut through the paper, it guards against this system of petty knavery.

Persons who would lift up their hands in holy horror at being accused of anything like dishonesty, have been known to have no conscientious scruples about cheating the government out of a two-cent stamp on a receipt, or using a postage stamp which, though canceled, might, by nice fixing up, escape detection in its illegal second use.

New cotton comes in daily, but by the single bale or two. On the 18th August, 1866, the first bale came in from Crittenden county, Ark. Yesterday the first of this year's crop arrived from the same county—just one month behind that of last year. This bale was from the plantation of A. F. Keisey & Co., nine miles below this city, and was consigned to Toof, Phillips & Co. It was a good style of strict middling, and a fair sample of the crop of Maj. Keisey. The market to-day was firmer than yesterday, but sales were light and buyers not willing to advance their offers. A few bales of middling changed hands at 23c, but strict middling was also bought during the day at the same figure.

The hopeful indications which were inaugurated on the commencement of the week bid fair to continue to the end. Country merchants are in town, and are not so limited in their purchases as formerly. The bad news from all quarters relative to the cotton crop will no doubt have a bad effect upon the fall trade, but it is to be hoped that the damage may not be as great as at present supposed. Wheat is in demand and firm at $2 15 to 2 25 for choice white and red winter; choice spring is held at $1 75 to 1 85, and firm. Corn is dull at $1 28 to 1 30, with no demand outside the city. Oats are in fair request and supply—selling at 68 to 72c. Meal is scarce at $6 on levee. Bran firm at $25 00 to 27 00 per ton. Hay dull at $22 00 to 24 00. India bagging 29 to 30c; Kentucky power loom, 26 to 27c; hand, 24 to 26c; machine rope, 11 to 12c. Potatoes are plentiful; selling at $3 50 to $4 00; Onions dull at $3 75 to 4 00. Apples are in light supply and held at $2 50 to 4 00, as to condition. Choice butter, 36 to 40c; common, 20 to 30c. Chickens are dull; young, $3 50 to 4 00; old, $5 00 to 5 50. Coffee, Rio, 25 to 27½c. Eggs, fair supply, 22 to 25c. Flour firmer; fine, $6 50 to 7 00; superfine, $7 50 to 8 00; X, $9 00 to 10 00; YX, $10 50 to 11 00; XXX, and all fancy brands, $13 00 to 14 00. Lard, in tierces, 13½ to 14c; kegs, 15 to 15½c. Mess pork, $27 00 to 28 00; mess beef, $16 50; clear sides firm at 19½ to 20c; shoulders, 15 to 16c; canvassed hams, 19 to 21c; sugar cured, 24 to 25½c. Salt, $3 25 per bbl. Sugar, 17 to 20c for crushed and clarified; 14 to 17c for brown. Western Reserve cheese, 14 to 15c; factory, 15 to 16c. Whisky, common, $1 65 to 2.

The revised cotton regulations, concerning the removal, weighing and marking of cotton have been approved by the secretary of the treasury, and will be issued next week. Transportation bonds are abolished and bills of lading substituted. The use of metallic tags, for marking bales, is imperatively required. Several modifications of the former regulations are made to facilitate the movement of cotton and insure the collection of tax upon it.

At the annual fair of the association of the tobacco trade of Cincinnati, a call was issued for a convention of the tobacco manufacturers of the United States, to be held in Cleveland, on Tuesday, September 17th. We learn that Brainard's hall was secured for the use of the convention. The object of the convention is to make a concerted effort for such a modification of the tax on manufactured tobacco, and the method of collecting it, as will be more secure against fraud, protect the manufacturer, and allow honest men to continue in the trade without losing their integrity.

The movement is a general one throughout the west, east and southwest, including Maryland and Virginia, delegates having been appointed from all the principal manufacturing cities and towns. With such concerted action, the voice of the convention must have a material influence on future legislation in regard to this important branch of trade. The trade of this city will be represented by one or more members of each of the principal firms. We hope and trust that the deliberations of the convention may result in presenting facts to the legislators of the country that will enable them to pass laws that will relieve the tobacco trade from the stigma of fraud and from the depression of which all honest manufacturers at present complain, and at the same time not diminish the revenue now derived from this source.—Cincinnati Gazette.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

We had a pleasant but light shower yesterday, which laid the dust, but did not cool off the atmosphere. The river here, like elsewhere, is falling, and low water packets are now in their glory. The Illinois is on a stand. The Ohio is lower than at any time since 1856. The Arkansas, White and St. Francis are receding steadily. There is no improvement reported at Phillips'—no arrival from there in fact, since Tuesday.

Arrivals.

Steamer Lizzie Tate, St. Louis.
" Ezra Porter, New Orleans.

Departures.

Steamer Tate, New Orleans.
" Porter, Cincinnati.

Boats in Port.

Des Arc, Ozark.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The arrivals yesterday were confined to a small compass, and business at the landing was very quiet in consequence.

Capt. Dan Conway, formerly of the Havana comes out in charge of the Marble City.

The hull of the Atlantic has been purchased by Hi Reamer & Co., of New Albany, for a wharf boat.

The Nashville is laid up at Paducah.

The Louisville is laid up at Cairo.

The Mississippi has been laid up.

J. B. Smith, a watchman on the Davenport was beaten by a lot of negro roustabouts on the last trip of that boat from St. Paul to St. Louis. His wounds are supposed to be mortal.

The fine steamer Des Arc, Capt. Elliott, will leave for Vicksburg on Saturday next. Wm. Miller and Cad Hanks are clerks.

The swift Belle St. Louis, Capt. Zeigler, leaves for Cairo and St. Louis to-day at 5 p.m. Billy Blenker is clerk.

The low water packet Ozark, Capt. Nowland, leaves for Little Rock to-day. Our friend Sam Wood is pursur. The Ozark will be sure to go through on time.

Capt. John Adams, a well-known river man and a member of the firm of Dean & Adams, New Orleans, is in this city.

The Lady will go out in place of the Victor to-day. Capt. House commands, and John Grehan is clerk. The Lady is fast, and will suit the trade well. She makes all way landing.

The J. S. McCune will be found in port this morning, and will leave again at 5 p.m. for all points on White river as far as Jacksonport. Capt. Duffer is in command, and Mr. Duff is chief clerk. Our energetic friend Geo. Fillmore is outer clerk on the McCune, and will attend to all business promptly.

The elegant passenger packet Minneola will leave the wharf on Friday evening next at 5 o'clock for Cincinnati. Those wishing a safe and speedy journey would do well to engage passage on this boat. The fact that she is under the command of the able and experienced Capt. Kates, is sufficient guarantee that all who travel on her will be well taken care of.

Among the many fine steamers which plough the waters of the Mississippi, none are more entitled to the consideration of the traveling public than the Gleaner. This packet will get away for Pine Bluff and intermediate points on Saturday next at 5 o'clok p.m. Capt. King is in command, and will look after the comfort of passengers.

The swift and elegant steamer Rowena is advertised for White river on next Saturday evening at 5 o'clock. The Rowena is under command of the accomplished gentleman and experienced river man Capt. John B. Davis.

"Brown has won the race, but Hamill claims a foul," remarked Tiffins, to Thompson yesterday. "Yes, but is it a turkey or a chicken that he claims?" queried Thompson. "Oh it is an aquatic fowl," replied Tiffins.

We see by a calculation made in Cincinnati, that more rain has fallen during the year 1867, than in any of the previous thirteen years. The inference and conclusions are, that we have already had more than our annual allowance, and that no more rain need fall this year. We do not admire the argument, much less the conclusions.

The difference between the Cincinnati bill of lading and that adopted by the Louisville captains' association is simply that the following clause is not embodied in the Louisville form: "With privilege of reshipping, stowing on lighter, and towing in the Ohio river."

The Tempest will not come out even on her present venture to White river. Our Cincinnati and Louisville friends should ship by the Memphis and Louisville railroad, and from here by our line of White river packets. The Courier says of the Tempest: "She was reported by the Empire as hard and fast aground at Scuffletown, with but slight hopes of getting over unless she lightens. The Tempest is very unfortunate in her first venture in the White river trade, and she may be very fortunate if she ever reaches that stream. She appears to stick so close to the Ohio that it will be very hard work to make her leave it.

Capt. Donaldson has concluded not to haul out the Great Republic for repairs at Mound City.

The St. Louis Republican gives the following as the rates of freight from that city to New Orleans: Flour, 90c by steamer and 80c by barges; whisky by steamer is $2 75, and no competition; pork $1 15 and $1 10; apples, potatoes and onions, $1 and 90c; corn 50c and 45c; oats 55c and 50c; oils, (excepting coal oil,) $1 75 and $1 50; coal oil, per steamer, $3, not carried by the barges; heavy pound freight by steamers 50c per 100 lbs, by barges 45c per 100 lbs; light freights are carried by steamers at the rate of $1 per 100 lbs, and by barges at 90 cents.

The St. Louis Democrat has an article upon natural outlets which coincides with our views so exactly that we make a few extracts:

We have heard a great deal about this theory that New York is the natural outlet of this country. Upon that theory a great many beautiful visions and bright hopes are based. Let us look at it a little! Already a great majority of the products of this country comes from the region drained by the Mississippi, and the growth of the country is increasing that majority every year. Where is the natural outlet of the products of the great west? Transportation by railroad is expensive. Transportation by river is cheap. Produce can be taken from Dubuque to New York cheaper by river than by railroad, and if so, of course it can be taken from Dubuque via New Orleans to any foreign port cheaper than by New York. Which is the natural outlet, then, that which has been so provided by nature that it affords a cheaper means of transportation than any artificial means that can be devised, or that which depends upon artificial means altogether? Tested by facts, New Orleans is the natural outlet of the produce of the great west, and New York is an artificial and unnatural outlet. And one cause of the embarrassment of business and the high prices that people have to pay for all necessaries of life, is that the west persists in being dependent upon the Atlantic states and pays a heavy toll to the "superior rascals" of Chicago and New York, using an unnatural and costly instead of a natural and cheap avenue of commerce.

For the river is not only the natural outlet, but the natural entrance for all business destined for the great west. What sense is there in importing our sugar or coffee via New York, paying all the enormous charges of that city, and all the freight westward by rail, when it can be landed in this city via New Orleans about as cheaply as it can be delivered in New York?

Before the war the Mississippi valley was largely supplied, and forwarded much of its produce via New Orleans, and it was supplied at reasonable rates. Still, because of its peculiar system of labor, New Orleans never possessed the enterprise to do all the business that nature had put within its reach. The war came, and this natural outlet was stopped. For four years the heroes of the northwest were busy "hewing their way from the lakes to the gulf," sacrificing many precious lives that the natural outlet of the northwest should not be shut up or pass into foreign hands. And, now that they have conquered, some "superior rascals" in Chicago propose that we shall not use this outlet again, and gravely tell us that commerce must travel east and west, and "that all the trade of the Mississippi valley must find its natural outlet by Chicago and New York! Said we not with truth, if impudence could make a city great, Chicago would surpass all other cities?

WM. A. ROBINSON & CO., MEMPHIS, TENN.,

AGENTS for Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Tennessee. For SIMPLICITY, ECONOMY, DURABILITY and POWER, it stands unrivalled, and its great excellence in these respects makes it the BEST and CHEAPEST COTTON PRESS IN THE WORLD.

Many testimonials as to its practical utility and superior excellence can be shown. In the season of 1866, the local demand for this Press was so great we were unable to meet it, and were obliged to disappoint many who applied for them. We furnish the irons at our Works in Memphis for $150, with plans and specifications for putting up. The entire cost of a Press complete, when put up, including freight on Irons, is but little over $200.

The mutual system has deservedly become the most popular mode of insurance in the United States, and is the one embraced by those best informed upon the subject, and who appreciate and desire security, perpetuity and economy. In a purely mutual company the assured derives all the advantages which can be realized from an insurance, and at the lowest rates, or exact cost, paying no tribute or profits to the proprietors or stockholders for, perhaps, an inadequate capital or security. Cheapness combined with security, and a certainty of accomplishing the object in view, are the essential elements sought for, and they may be found eminently existing in a well conducted mutual. All parties insuring in this company become members of the company and are directly intrusted in its success. Call at the office of the company for full information, whereby all real estate insurers can save FIFTY per cent. of their insurance account.
